EAT THE RUNT By Avery Crozier Directed by Kevin Nessman A satirical piece which turns its sharp eye on political correctness, office politics, sexual harassment, religious persuasions, and societal and cultural norms. The actors don't know which role they'll play until the audience decides for them at each performance, creating a unique and hilarious interpretation of the show every night. NYTheater.com called it, "...smart, sassy, funny, and devastatingly original."	THE LANGUAGE ARCHIVE By Julia Cho Directed by Jacey Rutledge George is a man consumed with preserving and documenting the dying languages of far-flung cultures. Closer to home, though, language is failing him. He doesn't know what to say to his wife, Mary, to keep her from leaving him, and he doesn't recognize the deep feelings that his lab assistant, Emma, has for him. OC Weekly reviewed this as a "Quirky, but ravishingly well-written piece that is smart, funny, deep and tender."	SEMINAR By Theresa Rebeck Directed by Andrew Boncotto In Seminar, a provocative comedy from Pulitzer Prize nominee Theresa Rebeck, four aspiring young novelists sign up for private writing classes with Leonard, an international literary figure. Under his recklessly brilliant and unorthodox instruction, some thrive and others founder; alliances are made and broken, sex is used as a weapon, and hearts are unmoored. The wordplay is not the only thing that turns vicious as innocence collides with experience in this biting comedy.	COMPLETELY HOLLYWOOD (ABRIDGED) By Reed Martin & Austin Tichenor Additional material by Dominic Conti Directed by Dave Sheppard From the cast and crew that brought you "The Complete Works of William Shakespeare (abridged)" comes a skewed look at Tinseltown. Our 3 returning heroes give Hollywood more than just a nip and a tuck; they cut through the celluloid to condense the 186 greatest films in Hollywood's 100+ year history into a complete compilation of classic cinematic clichés – in under 2 hours! "You'll nearly fall out of your theater seat laughing..." – Arizona Republic
